

No.	Presentation Title
4	Creating High Performing Interprofessional Teams: Leadership
10	Barriers and Facilitators of Collaborative Practice: Analysis of Ten Case Studies from Developed and Developing Countries
14	Interprofessional Reasoning: An Online Tool for Health Students
18	Shifting to an Interprofessional Practice Environment: What Can I Do?
22	Building Interprofessional Collaboration Through a Mentorship Program
24	Interprofessional Education Improves Client Outcomes
26	Combining Fun and Interprofessional Learning in a Virtual Environment
27	Head and Neck Cancer Mentoring Program – Supporting Allied Health Staff in Queensland
28	Health Professional Education: Students' Perceptions of an Interprofessional Education Environment
33	Health Educators' Perceived Needs
34	Internal Consistency of Measurements
35	Foundational Principles for Databases
41	Studying Different Student Categories' Experiences of an Interprofessional Clinical Course Using the Contextual Activity Sampling System (CASS)
43	The Impact of an IPE Curriculum in Dental Education
44	The Nature of Team Learning: Sharing and Creating a Collective Knowledge
45	Issues of Power and Politics
57	Interprofessional Training in the Operating Theatre
59	Recognition – A Presumption for Interprofessional Learning in Clinical Practice
60	Resilience in Interprofessional Teamwork – An Exploratory Study in Health & Social Care Teams
62	Developmental Biology for Regenerative Medicine
66	Interprofessional Collaboration in Therapy Practice Education in Ireland
68	Asking 'Who is Doing What and Why' for Student Learning in a Dental Clinical Service
70	CIHC Action Strategy: Leading Organizational Approaches to Sustain IPE in the Post-Secondary Education Sector
71	Interprofessional & Contributor Education: Building Sustainable Collaborative Practice Teams in Nova Scotia

No.	Presentation Title
72	Pre – and Post-Licensure Learning: When Two Worlds Collide!
77	Use of a Virtual Learning Community to Develop Interprofessional Practices: Preliminary Report
79	Online Synchronous and Asynchronous Delivery of IPE: Impact on Interprofessional Practice Attitudes
81	Making it Work – Interprofessional Management and Professional Leadership
86	Evaluation of Interprofessional Training in Home Care
87	Using a Metacognitive Model as a Tool for Designing an IPE Curricula
88	Michener’s Academic Innovation Strategy: Transforming Education in Applied Health Sciences
90	Teachers’ Perceptions of Interprofessional Learning and Education
91	Creating an Interprofessional Clinical Learning Unit in a Rehabilitation Care Setting
96	The Management of Minor Dermatoses in Community Pharmacy: The Feasibility of Teledermatology. A Study in Progress
100	Efficacy of Large Group Disaster Simulation to Teach Teamwork Skills in the Interprofessional Setting
110	Developing and Testing the Interprofessional Socialization & Valuing Scale Use in Evaluation of IPE
116	A New Zealand Workplace Initiative to Promote Physical Activity
126	Integrated Multidisciplinary Model for Education in Rural Settings (IMMERSE)
129	An Interprofessional Exploration of the 2:1 and 1:1 Models of Practice Education in Occupational Therapy and Physiotherapy
130	Assessing Professional Behaviour in an Interprofessional Clinical Context by using The Professional Mini-Evaluation Exercise (P-mex)
133	Interprofessional Collaboration for Health Promotion of School Aged Children
135	Through the Editor’s Eyes: Journal of Interprofessional Care
136	Interprofessional, Intercultural and International Collaborations: Future Interprofessional Education Network Developments
137	The American Interprofessional Health Collaborative
140	EnHANCE: Collaboration Across Primary Care, Mental Health and Addiction Agencies
148	Evaluation of Interdisciplinary Service-Learning at a Student-Run Health Clinic

No.	Presentation Title
149	Interprofessional Professional Development (IP-PD): An Interprofessional Collaborative Learning Series (IP-CLS)
151	Effective Delivery of Interprofessional Problem-Based Learning
152	Interprofessional Elder Care Education (IPECE) Program: Successful Case Based Learning In The Practice Education Setting
153	Teaching Common Content to an Interprofessional Group of Students: Development of an Interprofessional Pain Management Course
155	Allied Health Professions Practice-Based Education Facilitation: Establishing a New Interprofessional Role Across Scotland
157	Optimizing IPE in Practice: Seeing, Learning, Doing & Reflecting
159	Students Report Their Readiness for Interprofessional Learning Across Educational Sectors
161	Improving Interprofessional Communication Using a Virtual World
162	Is There an Optimal Model of Self-Management and Collaborative Practice for Chronic Neurological Disease?
163	Encouraging Interdisciplinary Practice Within a Specialist Pain Management Team
164	Collaborations Between a School Service Provider and a University Research Team Facilitates Exploration of Current Interprofessional Practice Within the ICF Framework, For Children With Primary Language Disorder (PLD)
165	Enhancing Chronic Disease Self Management Skills Via Interprofessional Learning and Practice
167	The McMaster-Ottawa Team Observed Structured Clinical Encounter (TOSCE): Assessment Tool of Team and Interprofessional Competencies
168	Teamwork in Action: A Three Year Journey in IPE
169	High Fidelity Simulation in the Arctic: A Research Platform for Telemedicine and Interprofessional Team Training in Spaceflight and Remoter Communities
170	The Use of Telemedicine to Target Interprofessional Education for Allied Health Students
179	Interprofessional Education in Medical Sciences Education in Iran
185	Developing a Professional Identity: Implications for Interprofessional Education
190	Evaluation of the IPE Curriculum at Kobe University Through Measuring Changes in Readiness for IPE
191	H1N1 – A Simulated Preparedness

No.	Presentation Title
193	Building the Foundations for Student Interprofessional Collaborative Practice Placements: A Community Health Service and University Partnership
194	The Health and Social Care Interprofessional Network (HSIN): A Model for Building Interprofessional Collaborative Practice in Rural Victoria, Australia
195	Innovative Use of Personal Digital Assistants with Interprofessional Learning and Practice
198	What is the Relationship between Different Models of Interdisciplinary Team Working and Patient, Staff and Service Outcomes?
201	Appreciative Inquiry and Emergent Change: An Approach for Teams and Managers to Enhance Interprofessional Care in the Health Care Setting
204	Professional Stereotyping in Beginner Health Care Students
205	Practical Guide to Setting up The Leicester Model of Interprofessional Practice-Based Learning
206	Interprofessional Education: How Student-Led Initiatives Are Filling the Gap
207	Capturing Serendipitous Learning Using Interprofessional Education (IPE) Buddy Groups
208	Keeping the Wish Alive: Challenges in Developing Sustainability for Student-Managed Clinics
209	The Leicester Model of Practice-Based Interprofessional Education
210	Strategies for Health Promotion and Prevention at the Wish Clinic: Current Challenges and Future Directions
211	Snowballing An Incremental Process for Promoting Interprofessional Education (IPE) in Practice Placements
216	Nursing Students With an IPE Curricula Report They Are More Prepared to Work With Other Health Professions
219	Attitudes Towards Interprofessional Education in the Beginning of the First Semester
221	Standardized Patients in a Home Care Setting
225	Learning and Interprofessional Collaboration: The Role of Physicians in Health Care Units Engaged in Continuous Quality Improvement Work
230	'Because My Child is a Whole Person': Identifying Practices & Needs in Pediatric Interprofessional Practice
232	Development and Evaluation of an Assessment Rubric for Interprofessional Collaboration Competencies

No.	Presentation Title
235	Interprofessional Education: Can We Do It?
238	Developing Teaching Process in Interprofessional Education. Collaboration Between Finland and Kenya
246	Making Early Connections in Health Care: Empowering and Integrating Student Voices in Regional Health Planning Through a Health Science Student Association
258	Challenges to Obtaining Interprofessional Learning Sustainability in Higher Education Institutions
271	Building Clinical Education Capacity with Interprofessional Clinical Learning Units: Focus on Continuing Care
277	Balancing the Agendas
280	Interprofessional Communication in the Intensive Care Unit: Silence and Noises
294	Interprofessional Supervision in an Integrated Health Residency
295	Invitation to Join the 'This is Public Health' Sticker Campaign
296	Are Undergraduates 'Ready' for Interprofessional Learning?
298	Do Undergraduates Learn What We Want Them To?
299	'Next Step Beyond Rehabilitation' Improving the Journey for the Cardiac Client
300	Community Clinical Educators: An Interprofessional Project for Clinical Education
301	Shared Interventions + Multidimensional Views = Interprofessional Practices?
302	Fusing Future Health Professionals Through Interprofessional Education: Students Experiences of the Inaugural Australian Health Fusion Team Challenge
305	CIHC Mainstream: Moving Interprofessional Education Into Practice
307	Developing and Testing a Universal Partnerships Strategy
308	Moving IPE Ahead Despite the Ever-Changing Political Landscape
311	Using Evidence to Create Sustainable Change Within Health Services: What Matters?
313	Interprofessional Education Incorporated Systemically Into Multi-Disciplinary Health Care Students' of Curricula at Gunma University
314	Student Choice in Relation to Interprofessional Learning Scenarios: Do They See Things Differently?

No.	Presentation Title
316	Commencement of a Chronic Pain Peer Support Group: A Partnership Between Knox Community Health Service & Eastern Health
317	IPL at University of South Australia – Our First Steps: Lessons Learned in Engaging Large Numbers of 1st Year Students in Interprofessional Learning
318	Communicating Effectively With Indigenous People: An Interprofessional Learning and Teaching Collaboration
319	Translating Theory to Practice: Improving Teamwork Through Professional Placement Based Interprofessional Clinical Education (IPCE)
320	Using a Workshop Model Framework to Promote and Facilitate Interprofessional Collaborative Education
321	Prevention and Recovery Care (PARC) Service Bairnsdale Victoria
326	Wiluna Bush Camp for Staff: Institutional & Curricula Change Through Experiential Remote and Indigenous Health Education in the Bush
327	Community Partnerships: Interprofessional Education and Learning in Pre-Clinical Medical Training
329	Canadian National Survey of Healthcare Leaders: Who Will be the Healthcare Leaders to Champion and Support Interprofessional Collaboration?
331	Mapping Teamwork Skills in an Interprofessional Curriculum – Identifying How Students Learn Teamwork
334	Collaborations in Integrative Medicine: Implications for Training
335	Professional Stereotypes, Levels of Own Competence and Opinions Regarding Crucial Activities for IPL from Delegates at an Interprofessional Conference
337	‘Every Child Matters’: An Examination of an Ambitious Interprofessional English Policy
342	A Good Practice Guide for Supporting Students as Online Facilitators
344	Developing a Change Management Tool to Enhance the Effectiveness of Interprofessional Working
345	Community Engagement in Data Collection of Primary Health Care Services: A Spatial Analysis Case Study at the Meander Valley
352	Towards Quality Use of Medication for Childhood AD/HD: Deconstructing Barriers to Interprofessional Practice
360	Facilitating an Interprofessional Learning Community in Practice Education

No.	Presentation Title
364	Life Solutions North West: Promoting a Creative Model of Rural Primary Mental Health Practice Through Interprofessional Learning and Competency Development
368	The Development of Interprofessional Attitude Test for Collaboration as a New Assessment Tool for Interprofessional Education
377	Implementing a Core Curriculum in a School of Public Health and Health Professions: IPE Opportunities and Challenges
385	Informing Health Care Policy to Enhance Interprofessional Collaborative Learning and Practice: A New Framework for Understanding Effective Teamwork in Healthcare
387	The Nature of Interprofessional Education in Medical Sciences Education in Iran
388	Developing and Implementing a Mobile Solution to Deliver Assessment and Learning in Health and Social Care Practice Placement Settings
391	Enhancing Patient Safety Through Undergraduate Interprofessional Education
394	Enhancing Interprofessional Training in Mental Health Education
403	Avoiding Disaster: Building Teams to Deliver IPE
413	An Inter-University Partnership to Build Capacity for Interprofessional Practice in the Health Sector
414	Student Choice in Relation to Interprofessional Learning Scenarios: Do They See Things Differently?
416	Allied Health Students Working Together for Better Physical and Psychological Outcomes for Overweight Adolescents and Their Families
417	What's All the Hipe? A Student Health Interprofessional Education Conference
418	Developing the Health Workforce for the Future: A Strategic Vision
419	Educating the Health Care Professional of the Future: Fieldwork Placements That Transformed Student Practice
424	Ethical Decision Making by Novice Health Care Students
434	Understanding Culture Through the Experience of Translating a Canadian Interprofessional Learning Program to the Danish Context: Implications for Global Collaboration
437	Statewide Lymphoedema Online Community of Practice – An Innovative Approach to Unite Health Professionals
438	Parents and Power: A Study of Innovative Consumer Collaboration in Gippsland

No.	Presentation Title
442	The Stories We Hold: Understanding Secondary Trauma in Health Care
443	Learning from Learners: Understanding and Integrating Profession Identity Through Connection
444	Nursing Ethical Values for Hospitalized Patients in Iran
445	Building an Interprofessional Education Curriculum: Integrating Core Competencies and a Process for Valuing Different Learning Activities
446	The Art and Science of Interprofessional Education (IPE) Facilitation: Meeting the Challenge
449	Research and Evaluation Committee: Building Research Capacity for IPE and IPC
450	Rural Interprofessional Self-Management Education Network (RISEN)
451	The AMSEC Project – A Model for Collaborative Interprofessional and Interdisciplinary Evidence Based Competency Education in Health
452	Follow-Up For Low Income People Who Live With HIV/Aids: What Can an Interprofessional Primary Health Care Staff Do About It?
456	Professional Identity: The Lost or New Found of Iranian Nurses
458	Identification of Cross-Disciplinary Capacity for Enhancing the Professional Education of Multidisciplinary Mental Health Practitioners