

THE 2nd ALFRED ICU TRAUMA SYMPOSIUM

THURSDAY NOVEMBER 18TH 2010

Optimal Management of the ICU Trauma Patient: A one day symposium for intensivists, intensive care trainees, intensive care nurses and other interested clinicians concentrating on optimal critical care management in 2010

ICU Seminar Room, 1st Floor, Main Block, Alfred Hospital

Registration at 0745

Keynote speaker: Prof Andrew Kirkpatrick, Canadian Trauma Surgeon

Session 1 (0820-1000)

BEFORE THE ICU

0820	Welcome and opening remarks	Andrew Davies
0830	Major Trauma in Victoria: Epidemiology and outcomes	Peter Cameron
0900	Trauma Retrieval: How do we move the patient to the Trauma Centre?	John Moloney
0930	Trauma Reception and Resuscitation: What have we learned?	Mark Fitzgerald
1000	Morning Tea/Coffee Break

Session 2 (1030-1230)

HOW I MANAGE A TRAUMA PATIENT (1)

1030	Optimal management of severe brain injury in 2010	Jamie Cooper
1100	Spine clearance in 2010: How should we do it?	Helen Ackland
1130	Early or delayed fixation of broken bones: Does it matter?	Sue Liew
1200	Lunch Break (including Tour of Alfred ICU)

Session 3 (1300-1500)

HOW I MANAGE A TRAUMA PATIENT (2)

1300	Intra-abdominal hypertension: Is it a problem?	Andrew Kirkpatrick
1330	Fluid resuscitation in trauma patients: Could we be harming them?	Russell Gruen
1400	IVC filters in trauma: Should we be using them?	Owen Roodenburg
1430	Does my patient have cardiac contusion? Echocardiography in trauma	Alvin Teo
1500	Afternoon Tea/Coffee Break

Session 4 (1530-1700)

THE FUTURE: TRAUMA RESEARCH

1530	Activated Factor 7: What we learned from the Haemostasis Registry	Peter Cameron
1600	CRASH 2: Should we be using tranexamic acid in trauma?	Andrew Davies
1630	TBI Research: The colder the better? POLAR/ EURO THERM	Stephen Bernard
1700	Closing remarks	Owen Roodenburg